Her unwavering dedication saw her excel in her early education, culminating in her graduating as the dux of her school. She then pursued her passion at La Trobe University, where she earned a Bachelor of Health Sciences in Dentistry and a Master of Dentistry, distinguished by multiple merit scholarships and an overall high distinction. Her professional journey commenced in regional public hospitals across Victoria, including Ballarat, Bendigo, and Melton, where she gained invaluable experience treating a diverse patient base and honing her skills in various dental procedures. Dr. Melissa now practices as a private dentist in Melbourne in the heart of the city, where she prioritises patient comfort and well-being through her gentle and empathetic approach. With a particular interest in preventative and restorative dentistry, she employs the latest technological advancements in the field such as CEREC. Beyond her professional pursuits, Dr. Melissa leads an active lifestyle, engaging in pilates, yoga, strength training, and creative activities like aerial silks and lyra hoop. Her commitment to wellness extends to exploring innovative approaches such as cryotherapy and hyperbaric oxygen therapy to optimise her overall health and well-being.
