She has trained in both metropolitan and rural areas in South Australia, gaining invaluable experience. She revels in the multi-faceted nature of dentistry but has specific interest in restorative dentistry. Natasha pursued dentistry because it afforded her the ability to work closely with people, whether that be the surrounding team or her patients. She believes in a patient-centred approach, where her patients' comforts and concerns are prioritised. Coming from both Italian and Greek heritage, Natasha enjoys cooking up a storm and spending time with family and friends.
