Having graduated with a Bachelor of Arts in 2008, she began working for an Australian infection control manufacturer. In 2012, Elizabeth embarked on a Bachelor of Oral Health at the University of Sydney. On graduating in 2014 she worked in both rural and urban practices, gaining a wealth of experience in hygiene, therapy and orthodontics. Elizabeth has a particular interest in treating children and in helping people with special needs. She enjoys one-on-one interaction with her patients and champions the difference that good oral care can make to a person's quality of life.
